

Henry T. Blankenship

1293 Calhoun Street Macon, Georgia 31201 | 478-319-3624 | henrytblankenship@gmail.com | American Citizen

Objective

---

Electrical engineering major with experience with computer programming and electrical hardware for robotics. Self-taught programming in high school and competed in local programming contests against other high schoolers. Hands-on experience with electrical hardware and schematics. Experience in fast paced competitive prototyping environment from FIRST Robotics Competition. Seeking summer internship in electrical engineering.

Education

---

Georgia Institute of Technology | Atlanta, GA

Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering

August 2025 – Present

Expected Graduation, May 2029

Skills

---

Programming: Java, Python (novice), C, C#, JavaScript

Platforms: Windows(XP,7,10,11)

Hardware: National Instruments RoboRio

Software: OnShape, Visual Studio, VirtualBox

Communication: instruction manuals, presentations (large and small audiences)

Languages: English (native), Portuguese (beginner)

Experience

---

Dozier Law Firm | Macon, Georgia

July 2024 – July 2025

Professional and Legal Assistant /Personal Injury Department

One of Georgia's largest personal injury law firms

- Assisted in management of case specific documents and files as well as managing closing and archiving of previous cases.

Georgia Tech Research Institute | Warner Robins, Georgia

May – July 2024

High School Intern

- Worked as a high school intern on a project to demonstrate ways to leverage RF hacking devices for ethical purposes.